Address of Rev. H. T. Musselman to Hayswood Graduates.

A large and interested audience greeted Rev. Mr. Musselman at the First Presbyterian Church last evening.

The occasion was the Baccalaureate Sermon to the graduating class of Hayswood. The text chosen by the speaker was from Galatians II, 20. "I am crucified with Christ; nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me."

The sermon was a direct, forceful and scholarly address, and was listened to with the closest attention by the large audience present.

The choir of the Church furnished the music which was of the highest order and added greatly to the enjoyment of the exercises.

HILL—MILLER.

Mr. Eddie F. Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hill of Clifton, and Miss Anna Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Miller of Louisville, were quietly married Wednesday, May 20th, by the Rev. Father O'Grady. Their many friends join in wishing them all happiness through their married life.

ROBERT T. WILSON.

After a protracted illness from a complication of ailments, due chiefly to advanced years, Mr. Robert T. Wilson died at his home, 1232 East Second, at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

He was born in Fleming county September 4th, 1829, and was in his 74th year. June 1st, 1876, he was married in Bath county, which was then his home, to Miss Mary V. Peale, to which union was born two children, Katharine Frances and Allen Collier Peale Wilson, both of whom have gone before, their remains lying in Maysville Cemetery.

Besides his wife there survives one sister, Mrs. George Hendricks of near Sherburne.

Mr. Wilson was a good citizen, upright and honorable in all his dealings, a devoted husband and father, a generous and considerate neighbor, a man of marked intelligence, and his death is a substantial loss to the community in which he had lived for several years, and which had come to respect him for his unostentatious and genuine worth.

The sympathy of a wide circle goes out to the bereaved widow, who has so long shared his useful life.

The funeral will occur from the home at 4 o'clock this afternoon, with services by the Revs. Dr. J. C. Molloy and Henry M. Scudder of the Central Presbyterian Church, and interment will be in Maysville Cemetery.

Ray's Rainbow Mixed Paint is guaranteed the best and cheapest.

Sealed bids for the various privileges at the Maysville Elks' Fair will be open Monday, June 8th. Send bids to H. L. Hamilton, Secretary.

Summer Handkerchiefs

No uncertain utterance concerning handkerchiefs ever appears in our spoken or printed statements. Neither will there be a retrograde. Broader and stronger assertion on this point will mark our store news of the future. Neither carelessness nor ignorance inspires the term Summer Handkerchiefs. They are not gauze handkerchiefs, nor iced handkerchiefs, nor flowering handkerchiefs—they are simply the sort you will appreciate now, when handkerchiefs are most needed and most easily lost.

The Louisville Evening Post says the greatest care should be exerted by Governor BRCKHAM in his selection of the Judge to preside at the third trial of CALEB POWERS, charged with being an accessory before the fact to the assassination of WILLIAM GOEBEL.

It is making no aspersion upon Judge CANTRILL to state that a large portion of the people of Kentucky have never accepted the verdicts in either of the preceding trials as decisive, and have held to the opinion that the conditions upon both occasions were such as to almost preclude any chance of acquittal.

When POWERS was tried the first time a political campaign for Governor was in active progress. The evidence prejudicial to the accused was accepted as final by most straight Democrats, the evidence in his favor was credited by most Republicans. The Jury being largely, if not entirely, of the Democratic faith, voted solidly the way Democrats believed, and a verdict of guilty was returned.

On the second trial the attorneys for the defense made an affidavit to the effect that Judge CANTRILL had formed such intense opinions; no aspersion of the sincerity of Judge CANTRILL was made, but that an absolutely fair trial could not be secured while he presided. Judge CANTRILL, however, refused to vacate, and a second verdict of guilty was returned, with twelve Democrats in the Jury box.

After announcing distinctly that it did not intend to say that the allegations against Judge CANTRILL were true, the Court of Appeals held that the affidavits were of such a character that he should have vacated the Bench. The case was reversed, and upon CANTRILL'S hesitating as to the validity of this decision, the Court of Appeals has issued a rule requiring him to vacate.

By a special law passed through the Legislature the appointment of a Judge in this case rests with the Governor, instead of by election by the Bar. If the Governor will appoint a man equally satisfactory to both sides, as is always done in a civil case, when the regular Judge vacates, the next trial may be generally accepted as satisfactory.

In this connection a ruling of the late Secretary GRESHAM, while he was upon the Federal Bench, is pertinent. Judge GRESHAM was presiding at a trial of a Democrat charged with the violation of election laws, and at whom the Republicans were much incensed. Before the case was begun he asked the Marshal what was the political complexion of the Jury. "All twelve men are Republicans," was the reply. "Discharge the Jury," said Judge GRESHAM. "I will not have this man tried by a Jury solidly opposed to him politically, at a time when politics is sure to figure in the case." The Marshal was directed to summon a panel half of Democrats and half of Republicans. The case was then tried and there was never complaint from either faction of injustice being done.

It would be a good thing if some present-day teachers of high-falutin' accomplishments would strike a cross-road country school where they might learn to write intelligibly.

ONE such episode as that related of JOE WHEELER'S treatment by Confederates at New Orleans offsets any number of protestations of fealty and regard for the Union and the Flag by the voice of the same gentlemen.

Political Pickings

GETTING BACK HOME!

Louisville Evening Post.

The cause of law and order was greatly advanced yesterday by the opinions of Judge Settle in the cases of O'Brien and Whitney, convicted of murder in Fayette. The Court of Appeals has this winter gone far to re-establish in this state the law against murder. The benefits of these decisions will soon be felt throughout the state.

In his report to the Board of Trustees of Tuskegee Institute, Booker Washington states that the greatest need of the Southern Negro is an efficient school system in the county districts.

Since the withdrawal of Russian troops from Southern Manchuria the peaceful Chinese and Manchurians have been terrorized by mobs of unemployed Chinese that have collected by the tens of thousands.

A few years ago the United States exported all its cotton. Last year, out of a total crop of 9,000,000 bales, it kept for home manufacture over 4,000,000 bales, of which Northern mills are using 2,200,000.

At present there are employed on the Panama Canal construction 1,500 laborers and foremen, 45 physicians, and 160 civil engineers. They were employed by the canal company, but are being paid by the United States. The daily expense of the construction amounts to about $5,000.

A. W. Machen, recently snappened Superintendent of the Free Delivery Division of the Postoffice Department, was arrested Wednesday on the charge of participating in the profits of certain contracts awarded to the Groff Bros. of Philadelphia. D. B. Groff surrendered to the United States authorities and was released on $10,000 bail.

PROVE ALL THINGS!

Maysville People Look for Proper Proof.

To win a wager, an English Marquis stood on London Bridge and offered British sovereigns ($5) for five shillings ($1.25). He could not find a customer. It's not to be wondered at; the public look askance at any proposition where the proposer is apparently a financial loser, without any direct or indirect gain. Fraudulent schemers have often been successful and in these days skepticism want better proof than the word of a stranger. No evidence can be stronger than the testimony of friends and neighbors of people we know. Here is a case of it:

Mrs. James Moien of 219 Lee street who says:

"Our son was greatly troubled with his kidneys and although he used many remedies nothing brought lasting relief. We learned about Doan's Kidney Pills and his father went to J. W. Wood & Son's Drugstore on West Second and Market streets and got a box for him. Its use proved its great value. We most heartily recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others suffering from kidney ailments."

His Last Hope Realized.
From The Sentinel, Gila, Montana.

In the first opening of Oklahoma to settlers in 1890 the Editor of this paper was among the many seekers after fortune who made the big race one fine day in April. During his traveling about and afterwards his camping upon his claim he encountered much bad water, which, together with the severe heat, gave him a very severe diarrhoea, which it seemed almost impossible to check, and along in June the case became so bad he expected to die. One day one of his neighbors brought him one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a last hope. A big dose was given him while he was rolling about on the ground in great agony, and in a few minutes the dose was repeated. The good effect of the medicine was soon noticed and within an hour the patient was taking his first sound sleep for a fortnight. That one little bottle worked a complete cure and he cannot help but feel grateful. The season for bowel disorders being at hand suggests this item. For sale by Jas. J. Wood & Son, Drugists.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MARRIED BY THE RAIN!

Able Address of Col. D. W. McClung Cut Short.

Impressive Ceremonies at the Soldiers Monument in the Cemetery.

What promised to be a more general and the most impressive observance of Decoration Day in Maysville was marred Saturday by the heavy shower which came up shortly after the address was begun at Dieterich's Park.

The sky brightened and cleared after the rain before noon, and with the sun shining everything pointed to a most favorable afternoon.

For the past few weeks there had been a movement to have this Decoration Day one of the best in the history of Mason county.

On no similar occasion had the graves in the City of the Dead been more beautifully or liberally decorated, every silent sleeper having been remembered.

Of the secret Orders the Redmen decorated the graves of their deceased brothers and the P. O. S. of A. joined with Joseph Heiser Post, G. A. R., in the usual ceremonies.

The two latter bodies, with the Redmen's Band, left the Grand Army Hall at 1:15, marching as far as Mathews's Switch, where streetcars were in waiting to convey them to the Cemetery.

On their arrival at the soldiers' Monument in the presence of a large number of spectators, the most impressive part of the day's ceremonies were given under the auspices of the Grand Army Post.

The ritualistic exercises appeal to the finer feelings of every one, and as delivered on Saturday, the readings, etc., were given the very closest attention. Participated in by the elder members of our citizenship, these annual services have become features in our National history, and on Saturday the observance was unusually pronounced.

The program being completed at the Monument the gathering assembled at Dieterich's Park, where, had the weather continued favorable, a rich treat was promised in the address to be delivered.

After selections by the Band and invocation by the Rev. E. L. Shepard, Post Commander Thomas A. Davis, in a few choice words, introduced Colonel D. W. McClung of Cincinnati.

Two years ago, on Decoration Day, Colonel McClung came to make an address, and as on Saturday he was interrupted by rain.

The interference a second time was the source of much regret and disappointment.

Those who heard Colonel McClung on the first occasion remembered him as an easy and graceful speaker, a complete master of his subject, and though hardly started in his address Saturday he had the very best attention of the assemblage.

The hard rain prevented the continuance of the speech and the completion of the program mapped out.

Colonel McClung, when forced to leave off speaking, very happily remarked that should Maysville be suffering from drouth a sure relief would come were he sent for.

While in Maysville he was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Ellis, and on yesterday morning he spoke at the First Presbyterian Church to an appreciative audience.

Charles F. Nickells, the Postmaster at Springfield, Greenup county, who was accidentally shot, is in a serious condition.

Of Holy Writ.

As described in Job xl, 24-25, was probably the hippopotamus, which in the time of Job seems to have been found in the Nile below the cataracts, though now it is said to be found only above them. It was an immense animal, the largest known, and very powerful. Dr. Burkhart's Vegetable Compound is the Be-he-moth of modern times, and its wonderful power over Rheumatism, Catarrh, Constipation and diseases of the blood has proven it to be the greatest medical discovery the world has, ever known. 30 days treatment 25 cents. All druggists.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA.
ITS CAUSE AND CURE.

Overwork any organ and it gives out—the stomach is no exception. Ask it to digest anything, everything, at any time in half the time required, and like an over-driven horse, it balks. Nature intended the stomach should have regular hours. A time to work, a time to rest—and when you break up this habit, you upset the whole arrangement. The stomach nerves become exhausted, the glands refuse to act, the food does not digest—lies heavy, ferments and repeats. There is pain, gas forms, bloating occurs, the heart becomes irregular and a nervous irritable feeling sets in. This is nervous dyspepsia and Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills is the cure.

Mr. J. L. Nicholson of No. 508 Limestone street, Maysville, Ky., says—"I was bothered with severe nervousness, sleeplessness, dizziness and indigestion. Hearing of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills sold at Chenoweth's Drug-store I decided to try a box. As a result my nervous system is in fine condition. I sleep well and am no longer bothered with those distressing dizzy spells—my appetite and digestion are fine and I feel generally vigorous. I can't recommend Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills too highly."

60c a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

The statue of W. T. Shorman, erected by the citizens of New York in the plaza circle at the Fifth avenue and Fifty-ninth street entrance to Central Park, was unveiled Decoration Day, Secretary Root delivering the oration.

Rev. Father Flynn has been transferred from Verons to Flemingsburg.

The Kanawha fleet has passed down.

The Tacoma will pass down from Pomeroy tonight.

The Henry M. Stanley will be up tonight for Pomeroy.

There is a nice boating stage in the Ohio from Wheeling down.

It is thought the Virginia will be able to get out tomorrow night for Pittsburgh.

The Hudson will run in the Coney Island trade, the Island Queen being unable to handle the crowds.

The Pomeroy Tribune-Telegraph says: "Wharfmaster Will Downie was aroused from a sound and refreshing sleep one night last summer by the gurgling sound of water which was rapidly filling his wharfboat. She had sprung a leak and when he reached the hull the water was already over two feet deep. By hard work he saved the boat. Since that time he has been racking his brain for an alarm which would act as a constant watch and sound an alarm in case of danger. He has at last succeeded and in the hull of his wharfboat may be seen the ingenious affair. It is very simple, being composed of a light rod, attached to the base of which is a large flat piece of copper. Just above the upper end of the rod is a small electric button which connects with an electric bell in the upper part of the wharfboat. The copper plate floats on the surface of the water and in case of a leak and corresponding rise of the water in the hull the rod is pressed upon until it comes in contact with the button and the alarm is sounded. A great many river men have examined it and pronounce it practical and necessary. Mr. Downie will place one on the Greenwood this week, which will be examined in Pittsburgh by the Combine. The result of the examination will undoubtedly be satisfactory and all the Combine boats will use the alarm."

Letters from Women

Cured by the use of Kodol are received daily. Their troubles nearly all begin with indigestion or other stomach disorder.

If the food you eat fails to give strength to your body, it is because the juices secreted by the stomach and digestive organs are inadequate to transform the nutrient properties of the food into blood. That is indigestion. The system is deprived of the amount of nourishment required to keep up the strength, and the result is that one or more of the delicate organs gradually grow weak, and then weaker, until finally it is diseased. Here a great mistake is made. That of treating the diseased organ. The best doctors in the land make this very mistake. Why should they? It is so easy to see that the trouble is not there.

Kodol Cures

This famous remedy puts the stomach and digestive organs in a healthy condition so that rich, red blood is sent coursing through the veins and arteries of every muscle, tissue and fiber throughout every organ of the entire body, and by Nature's law of health, full strength and vigor is soon restored to each. Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders.

I have taken Kodol for nearly two months after each meal and it is the only remedy that gave relief from the terrible pains I endured. After a time I would take it but once a day, and now, while I keep a bottle handy, I seldom need it, as it has cured me. Mrs. J. W. COOLBAUGH, Milo Center, N. Y.

CLOTHING TALK! s s s s s

There is something about the Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothing by which you may identify them even more certainly than the label. It goes into them before the label. It is a style, a quality, a tailored-by-hand touch to them, a harmony of fabrics, trimmings, etc., a thoroughbred look about them never found in other clothing. The fact that we can't define it doesn't make it any less real. You can see it without fully realizing what it is. We can't show it or tell you fully about it until you wear the clothes. Then we won't need to. This incomparable line is for men and confined to us.

But we have provided as well for the boys and children. We invite inspection and comparison of both goods and prices.

OUR MERCHANT TAILORING DEPARTMENT, under the supervision of Mr. Charles F. McNamara, is the only one in the city paying Union prices and having all work done at home. Ask to see one of our made-to-measure Suits. You can get them cheaper elsewhere, but not like ours.

Let us show you our new Shirts, new Hats, new Neckwear, etc., etc.
